The Postmaster-General has ordered the delivery of all registered letters and money-orders addressed to Baxter & Co., "put-and-call" operators, of No. 7 Wall street, to be atopped. Richard B. Baxter, who is supposed to comprise the firm, was originally in business in Chicago, where, it is said, he accumulated a fortune of $250,000. With this he came to this city, and the Wall-street sharps soon divided the whole of it among them. His friends say he then made a wow to get it all back again from somebody else, and in pursuance of this purpose he asopted the "put-and-call" business, then newly introduced.—New York Times.

and being the property conveyed by said deed.
The Property that a double value—rist, from its eligible location to the city of Richmond, being within five hundred yards of the southern terminus of the Free bridge, consequently its desirability for building purposes; second, it has upon it an area or builk of the best quality of BRICK CLAY sufficient to make not less than 12,000,000 bricks, the removal of which would reduce the present surface of the property to the level of the four streets by which it is bounded, thus readily enhancing its value and at the same time bringing a handome revenue from the yearly sale of the clay. Adjoining this property there are already three brick-yards without clay upon them, and this property being near thereto, the clay upon it will no doubt be brought into inmediate use. The improvements are a FRAME DWELLING with eight rooms besides closers; kitchen with four rooms; a good stabile. &c. The yard is surrounded by a bexwood hed e, enelosing several magnificent shade-trees.
This sale presents insuccuents raively offered at
